DEPARTMENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Engineers' Day Celebrations

The Department of Information Technology at PACE Institute of Technology and Sciences recently commemorated 53rd Engineers' Day, Bharat Ratna Sir Mokshagundam Visvesvaraya, and the 160th birthday of an engineer-statesman. In order to acquire significant experience, demonstrate abilities, and implement cutting-edge practices at the college level, the Department has organized the following events.

- Coding Competition
- Innovative Application development

Every student from every stream has taken part in this programme. The fourth-year IT students have demonstrated various Python Visualization Tools and the use of Kaggle Data Sets, which are useful for data analysis, as well as LOW CODE NO CODE development platforms, which are purposefully created to make it possible for professional developers and business users to design, develop, launch, and modify enterprise-grade applications with little to no or no coding experience.

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The Best Faculty Award was given to Ms. D. Pushpa Sri, Assistant Professor, Department of MBA, on the occasion of Teachers Day.

On September 5, 2022, the first-year MBA students observed Teachers' Day.
